SUPERVISORS' ROUTINE WORK

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT AND THE USUAL DEPARTMENT AFFAIRS HANDLED.

Supervisor Harvey at the meeting of the County Supervisors last evening declared that the committee on roads and bridges had proved negligent of the condition of Queen street and Supervisor Dwight, chairman of the committee, conceded that such was the case. On this score Chairman Hueston again came forth to advocate the use of block paving for that section and orders were given to ascertain the cost of such work. Perhaps other blocks will be tried. There is a lot of these blocks ready for an experiment and their value as compared with fir or cedar blocks may be tested.
Electrician Frazee and Supervisor Archer had a dialogue on street lighting. Archer having for some time complained that this matter was being overlooked. Frazee thought Archer had kept acquainted with the work under process in this respect. To properly carry on the work Frazee asked for an additional appropriation of $250 per month and this was allowed after slight discussion.
The regular monthly report of Sheriff Iauakea was received and read.
Supervisor Archer proposed that an ordinance be passed making property owners responsible for holes kicked in gutters by horses left standing in front of their property.
Regular monthly accounts were approved, as follows: Leahi Home, $127; County Attorney, $76.83; Waianae road district, $399.81; County Engineer, $87; County office rent, $148; County Treasurer, $15; Waialua road district, $192.15; Fire department, $142.50; Hawailan land, $64.95; Waialua road district, $175.69; County Engineer, $99.95; Ewa road district, $184.50; County Clerk, $61.20; County Auditor, $41.50; Koolauapoko road district, $580.06; Police department, $132; Road department, $378.03; Alewa Heights, $275.25; Garbage department, $424.

THE BALKAN WAR CLOUD.
That same old war cloud is hovering over the Balkans. It looks a little worn and seedy, but is still in good enough repair to keep the chancelleries of Europe busy. If war should really break out every one of the nations would announce itself pained and completely surprised.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

KEPOKAI'S CASE BEFORE THE BAR

ATTORNEYS GATHER TO DISCUSS QUESTION OF ENDORSING THE MAUI JUDGE.

The Hawaiian Bar Association yesterday afternoon listened to a series of damaging charges against Judge Ke-pokai, of the Second Circuit Court, of Maui, who aspires to be reappointed, read by Dan C. Case, County Attorney, of Yaiiku, and supported in part by affidavits of various Maui citizens.

Among the faults chalked up against the Hawaiian jurist, were the claim that he has a violent temper, and a vocabulary of vulgarity and profanity very unseemly in one of his position; That he is a political meddler;

That he has shown questionable discretion in the choice of jury commissioners, appointing relatives of his, and persons of questionable rectitude for an important office;

That he is little better than a tool of certain corporate interests in Maui which makes justice a joke whenever they are involved before him.

Judge Kepokai was present during the reading of these charges against him, and a number of times he broke in to protest or explain, but by advice of friends subsided into silence. No motion was taken by the Association, but a meeting was called for next Thursday when the Judge will be given an opportunity to submit an answer to the accusations against him.

At the opening of the meeting H. E.
Cooper made a statement correcting one he had previously made to the effect that County Attorney D. H. Case is a candidate for Judge Kepokai's position. Instead, he was informed by Case himself, that he was not a candidate for the office.

When this explanation had been made the reading of the charges against Kepokai was begun, the accused Judge having in the meantime been sent for and arrived.

Several instances were cited in which Judge Kepokai was said to have used profane language in most unseemly places—once at a Sunday school luncheon. An affidavit of Luk Chan, a Chinese police officer who had been struck twice with a horse whip in the hands of the judge, while enraged, was also read. Other charges of Kepokai's having threatened violence to other persons were also cited.

William Henning of Lahaina, chairman of the Maui Board of Supervisors, made affidavit that the Judge had acted under proxy on the Republican Central Committee in a most active and partisan manner. Editor H. M. Coke also supported this charge.

No affidavits were submitted in the matter of the selection of the jury commissioners, but it was charged that he had appointed George Wright, his brother-in-law, as one, and Ben Lyeons, his cousin, and proprietor of the worst grocery on the whole island as another. The accused didn't deny this, but protested that no complaint was made to the appointments.

In support of the charge that Judge Kepokai has accepted undue favors from certain corporations, an affidavit of W. T. Robinson, tax assessor, was read, in which it was alleged that interests held under lease from the Kahului Railroad Company, and formerly under lease from the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Company were easily worth from $1,500 to $2,000 per year. D. H. Case, under oath, quoted J. N. S. Williams, to the effect that these leases were held for $25 per month, and until recently had been held for less. C. D. Lufkin, cashier of the First National Bank of Wailuku, was also named as a witness to this fact. The lease in question is known as the Fisheries of Kahului.

The Association discussed the charges at considerable length. W. O.
Smith offered in evidence a letter from H. P. Baldwin, on the matter of the Kahului fisheries, to the effect that $25 per month rental is a big price, and more than the company could hope to make by handling them itself.

Mr. Smith also thought the political activity charge pretty thin in light of the fact that the Judge of the Federal Court last year sat as chairman of the Republican Territorial convention, and other Territorial judges took active part in party organizations.

There was other talk pro and con on the matter, during which Charlie Archi moved that Mr. Case be asked to furnish a list of the jurors furnished by the jury commission, complained of, and one such as he would have liked to see drawn. He thinks a good list of 100 names could be furnished on all Maui.
There was evidence of a good deal of sentiment in favor of Kepokai, and next week's meeting promises to be interesting.

Among those present at yesterday's meeting were: Chairman W. A. Kinney, W. W. Thayer, L. F. Dickey, L. G.
Kellogg, J. A. Magoon, L. M. Lightfoot, C. F. Peterson, Judge Andrade, H. E. Cooper, A. G. M. Robertson, W.
O. Smith, Judge Perry, F. E. Thompson, Judge Stanley, C. F. Clemons, A.
L. C. Atkinson, W. A. Greenwell, R.
D. Mead, Judge Kingsbury, A. G. Correa, A. Lewis, Jr., A. P. Judd, D. H.
Case, L. J. Warren, D. L. Withington, E. M. Watson, P. L. Weaver, H. G.
Middleditch, Charles Achi, W. T. Rawson, F. H. Olson, M. P. Pender and Frank L. Hatch.

FOR TEACHERS.
Governor Pease received a cable yesterday from Superintendent of Schools Dabbert, now in Washington, to the effect that transportation has been secured for thirty teachers on an Army transport sailing to the Coast tomorrow. This probably means that teachers to the number above stated will be enabled to take a vacation to the Coast next summer without the heavy expense of transportation. There is likely to be a rush of applicants for the coveted places.

WANT A RENEWAL.
W. C. Peacock & Co. has filed for record a renewal of their lease on the Merchant street property it occupies for a period of 25 years from August 1st, 1908, at an annual rental of $225 per month. The property is leased from E. A. J. D. and W. H. McIntyre, owners, and consists of a two-story building with basement. Portions of it are subleased.
